UPDATE #LASD, Arrest Made, Deputy-Involved Shooting, Non-Hit, 8000 blk Compton Ave., Uninc. Los Angeles, Century Sta

Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Operation Safe Street detectives are investigating the circumstances surrounding the assault with a firearm on a deputy and the deputy-involved shooting that ensued.

On Saturday, December 31, 2017, at approximately 11:00 p.m., Compton Station deputies were conducting a traffic stop in the 8000 block of Compton Avenue, unincorporated Los Angeles. While conducting their traffic investigation, the deputies heard and saw muzzle flash and gunshots coming in their direction from an apartment complex across the street. A lone male Hispanic was standing in the courtyard at the time of the shooting. One of the deputies withdrew his duty weapon and fired one round in the direction of the male Hispanic suspect.

The suspect fled the location eastbound through the apartment complex and out of view. A containment was readily coordinated and the suspect, a 23-year old male Hispanic was located a short time later approximately one block north of the location.

The suspect, was arrested and transported to Century Station where he was booked for “Assault with a Firearm upon the Person of a Peace Officer”.

The suspect’s gun, was not recovered at the scene.

No deputies nor civilians were injured during the incident.

The suspect’s identity is not being released at this time pending further investigation.

Anyone with information about this incident is encouraged to contact the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Century Station at (323) 568-4800.
